by my attorney that I am privileged <sup>to buy</sup> the lot in the Lowell Cemetery in Mr Robert A. Smith's name and that it will not be a part of the estate.

I am ready to pay for it whenever you are ready to have the deed made out in my name (Edna L. Smith)

Can the transfer be made without me going to Lowell?

If I sell one half can the deed be made
out to the purchaser at the same time?

Kindly advise me in the matter.

and oblige

Yours Truly
Mrs Robert A. Smith

November 15-1918.

This transaction is unusual. Hannah & Morrison purchase lot for their husband, placing $150. Can fund on lot in 1918 the amount remains to Parker Tomb and give lot and stone work thereon to Corporation, with stipulation that $150 resulting from sale shall be deposited for care of lot on which stands the Parker Tomb.

In book keeping entries, we show $400. as "lot sold" the balance is treated as a gift - less $150. deposited as care fund to Parker Tomb
